

Auesome • Achievers

Let's become educated, empowered, & enlightened

Are you concerned with your child's learning experience?

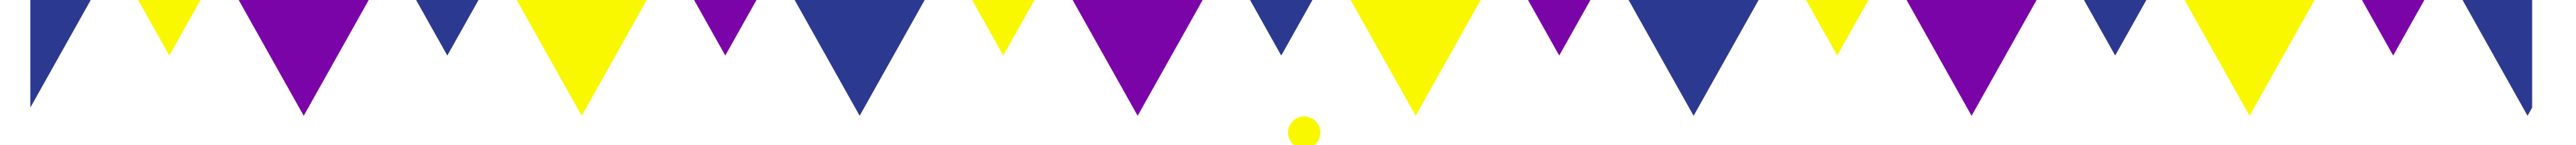

Learn about how to be your child's best advocate without so much emotion

Learn the techniques to help your child self-advocate

Then A Master IEP Coach® is here to help!!

I am able to help you collaborate at the IEP table and build IEPs, 504s, and Gifted Educational Plans that are truly unique to meet your child's needs.

Parent Support

The needed support that will make the impossible happen!

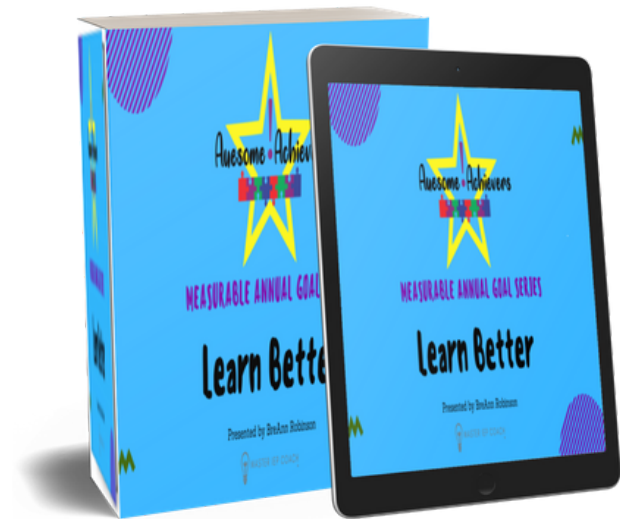

One to One emotional support to parents of children with special needs. Information on finding and getting resources. Parent advocacy training.

This support is perfect for parents that want to gain an understanding of their child's IEP.

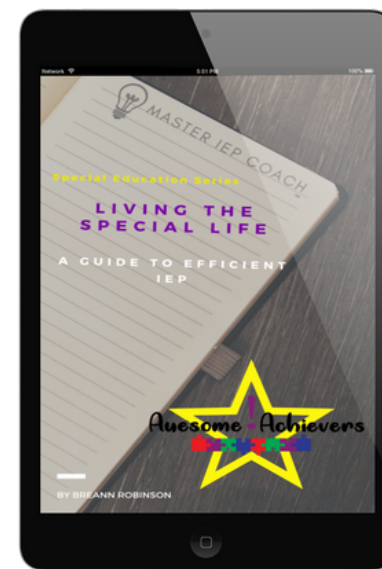

We also offer tutoring services for those with special needs. We are well equipped to assist those with Dyslexia, Autism, ADHD, and Down Syndrome, Twice Exceptional, and other learning disabilities.

We offer different courses

In this course, you will learn how to effectively and efficiently write SMART goals. This course will also shed light on FORBIDDEN words that should not be used when developing a goal. By the end of this course, you will better understand what measurable annual goals are, how to write them and what to expect from the IEP team.

In this course, you will learn what it takes to qualify a child for special education services. This course will talk about Child Find, Evaluations, Assessments, 13 categories for eligibility, and more. Get started with learning the overall basis of what special education services is all about.

In this course, you will learn about the 13 different sections that is required for all IEP documents throughout the United States. You will also gain an understanding to what each section means and how it applies to your child.

Child Educational Advocate

As a child educational advocate, we advocate for not only special need children, but also typical children. We collaborate with your child's teachers and school forming a good working partnership so we can ensure your child is receiving a quality education.

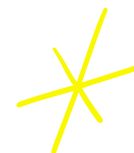

Our goal is to foster effective communication, family involvement, and self-advocacy.

• IEP Advocate

Whether you call me an IEP Advocate or a Master IEP Coach®, I strive to get the IEP team to refocus on the child, learn to be collaborative, develop effective and efficient communication, and hold every member on the team accountable.

My team and I are focused on Direct Advocacy and Representation in IEP Meetings, Educational Planning, Monitoring of Progress and Provision of Services, and Referral to Community Resources including camps, private schools, residential placements, college programs for LD students, family support groups, and recreational activities for children with special needs.
